

Department of Integrative Biology
Fall Seminar Series 2018
ALS 4001 4:00PM

10/1/2018	Sound the Alarm! Anti-predator Communication in Social Flock of Chickadees and Tits		Dr. Christopher Templeton Assistant Professor of Biology Pacific University	Hosted by the Mason Lab
10/8/2018	Ghosts on the Landscape: Old Bones Offer New Insights for Understanding, Conserving, and Managing Modern Ecosystems		Dr. Joshua Miller Assistant Professor University of Cincinnati	Hosted by the Terry Lab
10/15/2018	Sex and Tragedy: How Evolutionary Theory Provides Insights to the Evolution of Sexual Conflict		Dr. Omar Tonsi Eldakar Associate Professor Nova Southeastern University	Hosted by the Maddison Lab
10/22/2018	What Can Bones Tell Us About Ecology in Larval Fishes?		Dr. Alison Deary Fisheries Biologist NOAA	Hosted by the Sponaugle Lab
10/29/2018	Celestial Navigation in Drosophila		Dr. Timothy Warren Postdoctoral Researcher University of Oregon	Hosted by the Strother Lab
11/5/2018	What Can You Do with That Degree? A Scientist's Experiences Working in Natural Resource Management		Dr. Leslie Bach Senior Program Manager Northwest Power and Conservation Council	Hosted by Rebecca Terry
11/12/2018	Veterans Day - No Seminar
11/19/2018	Regulation of Mitochondrial Genome Distribution within Human Cells		Dr. Samantha Lewis Senior Postdoctoral Fellow UC Davis	Hosted by the Denver Lab
11/26/2018	Direct and Indirect Interactions Between Owls, Mice, and Nocturnal Seabirds: Integrating Marine and Terrestrial Food Webs		Dr. Sarah Thomsen Postdoctoral Researcher Oregon State University	Hosted by the Terry Lab

